Dear Examiner Jiang,

As per our discussion today, here is an additional copy of the references cited. Of additional interest, should EAST or WEST ever run slowly or is down for maintenance, you can also view patents from the EPO web site: <http://ep.espacenet.com> (as this is based in Munich, Germany, this site generally runs faster after 11:00 am EST).

This is especially useful for finding English language abstracts or equivalents of foreign patent documents. If you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.
